A VISIT FROM THE BI AND BI COMMISSION

A special session of the Royal Commission on Bilingualism and Biculturalism will take place in the East Common Room, Hart House, Tuesday 4 August at 7.30 p.m. Mr Royce Frith, M. Jean-Louis Gagnon and Professor Frank Scott, the three Commissioners who will be present, are anxious for your answers to a number of important questions that have arisen during their coast-to-coast tour. After a few introductory remarks, the session will divide into discussion groups where the subject can be discussed in greater intensity. Following this a plenary session will be held for questions and statements from the audience at large. Documents of information concerning the Commission are available at the Information Centre, Hart House, and at O.C.E.

"HART HOUSE WEDNESDAY NIGHT" If you have not had the pleasure of enjoying this social evening you should take advantage of this invitation to join us this Wednesday 5 August at 9.00 p.m. Dancing takes place in the Great Hall until midnight. Cards are played in the East Common Room. Swimming for men and women continues from 9.00 to 10.30 Towels are supplied. For relaxation classical records are also played in the special room for that purpose on the second floor. Your summer A.T.L. card is the only price of admission. Come and see what fun awaits you this Wednesday.

SPECIAL FILM SHOWINGS "The Stratford Adventure" is a film of how Stratford's Shakespearean Festival has grown from the time of its birth as an idea. This film in colour will be screened at O.C.E. Monday 3 August at 1.00 p.m. in the Auditorium. Tuesday 4 August, at 11.00 a.m. it will be shown again in the East Common Room, Hart House. Please note that it is a rule of Hart House that food must not be eaten in the rooms other than the Great Hall, the Arbor Room and the Tuck Shop.

EXAMINATION TIMETABLE Since numerous enquiries have been made about this at the Information Centre, we are taking this opportunity to inform you that the timetable will be posted in several locations around the campus as soon as possible after 1 August. Please do not phone Simcoe Hall about this matter. When it is prepared you won't miss seeing it, here, there and everywhere!

SCARBOROUGH COLLEGE A special display of Scarborough College will be shown in the main lobby of the University Library beginning Friday 7 August. This display will consist of eighteen large panels which will carry diagrams, photographs and descriptions of the plans for Scarborough College to be opened for undergraduates in September 1965. Of special interest also will be two scale models, one of which will show the available facilities to be completed by September 1965. The other model will tell the story of Scarborough College as it will appear when fully constructed. The first extension courses at Scarborough will be given this fall at Birchmount Park Collegiate Institute. Courses offered may be found in the Extension Division Calendar. Applications must be submitted by 15 August, 1964.

AN INTERNATIONAL DISPLAY Mon[illegible] 3 August and following on Tuesday and Wednesday Mrs. E.W. Mulvany will be on hand in the Information Centre, Hart House to present a showing of arts and crafts of other countries. Manchadi sweets will also be a part of this display. These Mrs. Mulvany suggests are of special interest to teachers to consider for Student Council fund-raising campaigns. Mrs. Mulvany's presence at Hart House is under the sponsorship of the "Freedom From Hunger Campaign" of Unesco.

THE OPEN GRAVE A modern allegory of the Resurrection, this film provided considerable controversy when it was shown a few months ago. James Guthrie executive producer in the public affairs branch of the C.B.C. is the produc-

House, Monday. 10 August at noon, Mr. Guthro will also be present to answer questions.
